SEASIDE SPECIAL ACTIVITY MORNING

Last Tuesday, the Families and Youth Group led a very successful Seaside Special morning for pre school children and their siblings. Around 60 children and their adults, enjoyed a morning of activities, sand and water, a treasure hunt, stories and songs. Some even stayed for a picnic! There was cake, biscuits, lollies and chocolate coin treasure to be had. A huge thank you to all those who gave their time to help and be involved. The children and their adults really appreciated it.

Look out for news of our next special event at Harvest time.

HYMNS

In Rev. Mark's absence, Rita and Alison have volunteered to co-ordinate the selection of hymns for the 10am Sunday services. Our aim is to include as many favourites from the whole congregation whilst maintaining relevance to the services. This week's hymns were chosen by David Wiltshire's House Group. If any other group or individuals would like any particular hymns included please let us know, with specific tunes and dates if appropriate. We may be limited by what is on the digital hymnal but that still gives a very wide selection. Contact Rita or Alison (rita_ramsay@icloud.com or alison.edwards@mac.com) or complete one of the hymn slips on the table by the door.

I will sing unto the Lord a joyful song
