A MESSAGE FROM REV. KEN HOBBS

I can confirm that all being well we will start our "combined" or "hybrid" service from Sunday August 2nd at 10am. The service will be live in church and also available at home on Zoom. The first service will be a relaxed and simple service for all ages. I do hope that some of you will feel confident to come into the building and join me. There will be procedures in place to keep us all safe. More details will be given soon. We are all treading on new ground here and we will work together to recapture as far as possible gathered church worship and fellowship.

This morning we welcome Rev David Senior as our service leader and preacher. He will be continuing our Genesis series on "Lessons from the Dawn of Time"

Ken

HOLIDAYS

I am away next week so there will be no video reflection. The office will also be closed. You will receive a newsletter next week for the service on Sunday 26th July.

ST JOHN'S TO RESTART SUNDAY SERVICES

As we are aware the Government have allowed Churches to resume live Services, and it is intended that we at St John's restart 10am Sunday Worship in Church commencing on Sunday 2nd August. (All age worship)

This does NOT mean our now regular computer 'Zoom' broadcast will stop. This will continue from the Church for all those that do not yet wish to venture out to a communal gathering. So now there will be two ways to enjoy the service led by Rev. Ken Hobbs, together live in Church, AND live on screen at home.

We will of course be following all Government guidelines concerning Covid19. Social distancing, Sanitisation, Restricted circulation, etc.

So if you feel you are able to join us in Church each Sunday at 10am, then we would be pleased to welcome you on 2nd August, but if you feel you are not yet ready then do please continue to join us on Zoom.

There will be more information to follow, nearer the date.

Help us to walk in the light of your presence. Amen

1st Reading Genesis 8 v13-19 and 9 v8-17 read by Tim Rogers

In the six hundred and first year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth; and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and saw that the face of the ground was drying. In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry. Then God said to Noah, 'Go out of the ark, you and your wife, and your sons and your sons' wives with you. Bring out with you every living thing that is with you of all flesh—birds and animals and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth—so that they may abound on the earth, and be fruitful and multiply on the earth.' So Noah went out with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives. And every animal, every creeping thing, and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, went out of the ark by families.

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, 'As for me, I am establishing my covenant with you and your descendants after you, and with every living creature that is with you, the birds, the domestic animals, and every animal of the earth with you, as many as came out of the ark. I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.' God said, 'This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth. When I bring clouds over the earth and the bow is seen in the clouds, I will remember my covenant that is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh; and the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all flesh. When the bow is in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.' God said to Noah, 'This is the sign of the covenant that I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.'

Hymn Seek ye first the kingdom of God

2nd Reading Matthew 14.22-33 read by Tim Rogers

Immediately he made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking towards them on the lake. But when the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified, saying, 'It is a ghost!' And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, 'Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.'

Peter answered him, 'Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.' He said, 'Come.' So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came towards Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, 'Lord, save me!' Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, 'You of little faith, why did you doubt?' When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshipped him, saying, 'Truly you are the Son of God.'

Almighty God, we thank you for your mercy and your grace: Thank you for the wonder of your presence and power in Creation. You are our light in darkness, our strength in weakness and our comfort in sorrow. You heal our bodies and our minds; you ease our pain, you lift our anxieties; you give us hope and you set us free. So fill us with your Spirit's power that we may take your healing love to a world in need, with your strength rebuild broken lives, and bring glory to your name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name
Your kingdom come, your will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our sins
As we forgive those who sin against us.
And lead us not into temptation
But deliver us from evil
For the Kingdom, power and the glory are yours, now and for ever Amen

Thanksgiving Prayer

The Lord is here

His spirit is with us,

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

It is right to give thanks and praise.

On the night when He was betrayed, at supper with his friends, Jesus took bread and thanked you. He broke it and gave it to them saying "Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me"

At the end of supper, taking a cup of wine, Jesus thanked you and said "Drink this all of you. This is my blood of the new covenant which is shed for you for the forgiveness of sins; do this in remembrance of me."

As we proclaim his death and celebrate his rising in glory, send your Holy Spirit that the bread and wine we share may be for us by faith the body and blood of your dear son.

(do share some bread and wine if you feel that is appropriate)

Hymn Thine be the glory risen conquering son

Blessing
