Luke 15: 1-7

A MESSAGE FROM REV. KEN HOBBS

Today we have our third combined service from church and at home and we are learning all the time. My thanks go to the technical team of John Simon, Margaret Hobbs and Sarah Tutton who have made this possible. We hope to make some improvements to the sound and vision quality.

At the Zoom PCC this week we received and approved the current risk assessments associated with the reopening of the church building. The advice and regulations change regularly and we are grateful for the work done by our wardens Ken and Janis, Mike Gittins and Jean Tutton to make the building as bio secure as possible.

Please continue to pray for our future patterns of life and ministry in the context of an uncertain world. The Bible says we are part of a "kingdom that cannot be shaken" May we find secure anchorage for the future.

God bless you

Ken

SUNDAY SERVICES

We are pleased many of you are able to join us in church as well as Zoom. For those attending church, please be reminded of the following:

- Refrain from entering if you are feeling unwell or have experienced any COVID-19 symptoms in the past seven days
- Take responsibility for your own safety and that of your household and other people by maintaining social distancing.
- Wear a mask/face covering, if you are able to do so.
- Observe all hygiene measures.
- Ensure children are supervised at all time.

If anyone should have any queries or indeed feel unsure and would like more information, then please do get in touch with either of us or Rev. Ken.

FOODBANK

I think you should know that each email I get from the Foodbank listing their stock needs starts with the sentence 'I hope you are safe and well'. It sums up the care we need to have for others at this time in particular but perhaps it's a way of life that our world had started to forget. Anyway, the care goes two ways - we do our best to support them and they don't forget that some of us may be struggling and send their

1st Reading Psalm 100 read by Ian Hargrave

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

Worship the Lord with gladness;
come into his presence with singing.

Know that the Lord is God.

It is he that made us, and we are his;
we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving,
and his courts with praise.

Give thanks to him, bless his name.

For the Lord is good;

his steadfast love endures for ever,
and his faithfulness to all generations.

Gospel Reading Luke 15. 1-7 read by Ian Hargrave

Now all the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, 'This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.'

So he told them this parable: 'Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, "Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost." Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.'
